

House Resolution No. 116

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives feel it is altogether fitting and proper to pause from time to time to recognize individuals and organizations that have contributed to the welfare of this great state and its citizens or distinguished themselves through significant personal achievement; and

Whereas, the members are proud and pleased to pause now to recognize Wanda L. Lowe, of Marshfield, Missouri, who retired from her post as Webster County Court Clerk on January 1, 2008, after more than thirty-five years of service to Webster County, and continues to work in her part-time position as City Court Clerk for the City of Rogersville, Missouri; and

Whereas, Wanda Lowe began working in the Webster County Courthouse in 1971 for Judge Lewis Childress, after which she worked for a few years for Sheriff Eugene Fraker prior to assuming the responsibilities of Webster County Court Clerk; and

Whereas, Wanda Lowe worked for Webster County through seven United States Presidents, five Prosecuting Attorneys, and four Webster County Sheriffs; and

Whereas, Wanda Lowe is universally admired for her work ethic, often being the first to arrive and the last to leave, being honest, loyal, hard-working, and conscientious; and

Whereas, Wanda Lowe intends to spend some of her well-earned time traveling and camping with her family; and

Whereas, Wanda Lowe has been the treasured wife of Sherman Lowe for the last forty-eight years, and they are the proud parents of five children: Debbie Cooper of Springfield, Missouri; Karen Blazer of Marshfield, Missouri; Kathy Jones, of Fordland, Missouri; Becky McHaffie of Fordland; and Ricky Lowe of Marshfield; the devoted grandparents of eleven grandchildren (with another on the way); and loving great-grandparents of four great-grandchildren (with two more on the way):

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join to extend our most sincere congratulations to Wanda Lowe on the occasion of her retirement from her Webster County position, with our gratitude for her many years of public service and our best wishes for success in her new position; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Wanda L. Lowe.
